

Max 17C, min 2C

Wednesday October 15 2008 timesonline.co.uk No 69455

80p

buy me

Derwent May

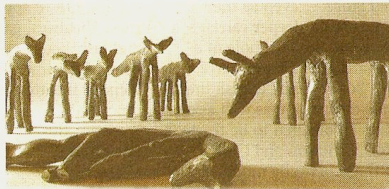

£420

This year the enterprising Zoo Art Fair is being held at the Royal Academy, London W1, Oct 17-20. Jane England's silver bromide print Jordan with juke box at Sex, Chelsea, February 1976 costs £420 on the stand of the East End gallery Ancient and Modern. (www.zooartfair.com; 0871 2301079; www.ancientandmodern.org)

£2,500

Paul Chaney is a remarkable young artist from Cornwall. This Memorial to Roadkill Foxes has been cast using lead from car wheel balancing weights — a kind of revenge of the foxes on the cars. The set of foxes on a stand costs £2,500 in his solo show The Lonely Now until Oct 28 at Goldfish, Chapel Street, Penzance (www.goldfishfineart.co.uk; 01736 360573)

£45,560

The Frieze Art Fair is back in Regent's Park, London, Oct 16-19. Dan Colen is a 29-year-old New York artist said to have "a unique talent for combining grime with the sublime". His oil on wood called Holy Shit, 2006, costs $80,000 (£45,560) on the stand of the Berlin and Los Angeles gallery Peres Projects. (www.friezeartfair.com; 0870 8900514; peresprojects.com)

